

Good Friday

Jesus was nailed to a cross outside the city walls.

There were two others put to death with him, one on his right and the other on his left.

When Jesus was dying he said,

“Father, forgive them. They do not know what they are doing.”

The soldiers played a game of dice to decide who would have his clothes.

There was a notice nailed to the cross of Jesus.

It said, “This is the King of the Jews.”

One of the men on the cross made fun of Jesus saying,

If you are a real king, why don't you save us all?”

The other man told him to be quiet, because Jesus had done nothing wrong.

Then he said to Jesus, “Please, remember me.

Don't ever forget me.”

Jesus said, “I will remember you today and always.”
