

At St Laurence's Catholic Primary School, we aim to create opportunities for our children to develop an enthusiasm and passion for Science. Where they can explore, take risks and discover the world around us. Science is good when:

Children are making connections

Children are using scientific vocabulary

Children are curious, asking questions and inquisitive

Children are engaged and enthusiastic

Children are taking risks